You won't believe what we have around

Not only is Sitges a prime destination in its own right, it's also strategically located as a starting point for exploring other places of interest in Catalonia that are also World Heritage Sites, such as the monastery of Poblet, the archaeological sites of Tarragona, the modernista works of Antoni Gaudí, Montserrat, and the Camp Nou.

Barcelona: capital modernista

MODERNIST ROUTE THROUGH BARCELONA

If you love Modernisme, Barcelona is undoubtedly the world capital of this artistic movement and a city where you can admire the universal legacy of its greatest master, Antoni Gaudí, through works such as the Sagrada Família, La Pedrera and Casa Batlló. You can also visit the magnificent Palau de la Música Catalana music hall. And that's just the beginning...

A MODERNISME ROUTE THROUGH BARCELONA

The official Barcelona tourism portal suggests a Modernisme route through the city, which you can begin in the Eixample district, in the so-called Quadrat d'Or ("Golden Square"), home to the largest concentration of Modernista buildings in the Catalan capital. From there, continue along Passeig de Gràcia and admire the architectural brilliance of La Pedrera and Casa Batlló by Antoni Gaudí, as well as Casa Amatller by the equally brilliant architect Josep Puig i Cadafalch.

A (very) magical mountain

VIEW MONTSERRAT ABBEY WEBSITE

 All year round —  Montserrat

Montserrat is undoubtedly the most emblematic mountain in Catalonia and one of the most unique in the world — and we're not exaggerating. Its peculiar morphology and the ancient tradition that surrounds it is cause enough to talk about this magical mountain.

SO MANY THINGS TO DO

Located just 40 kilometres from Sitges, Montserrat is an absolutely (we want to stress that again) essential visit. Whether you are drawn by Christian faith, art (take a look at its museum), nature or hiking... up there you will find something for everyone. Just in case, wear comfortable shoes and decide for yourselves. Among the must-see places are Plaça de Santa Maria, the gateway to the monastery, basilica and museum; the basilica atrium — guaranteed to leave you open-mouthed — and, of course, the chance to see La Moreneta (the “Black Madonna”), who presides over the church. And if you can, listening to the boys of the Escolania de Montserrat choir sing is a deeply moving experience. They perform from Monday to Friday, at 13:00 and 18:45. On Sundays, they sing at 12:00 and also at 18:45.

A spectacular theme park

VIEW PORTAVENTURA WEBSITE

All year round —  Av. Pere Molas, s/n (Vilaseca)

One of Europe's most spectacular family leisure destinations lies just 45 minutes by car from Sitges. The resort features three theme parks where you can unleash your adrenaline and enjoy a wide variety of shows and attractions. PortAventura Park, PortAventura Caribe Aquatic Park and Ferrari Land. Guaranteed fun for the whole family among unique surroundings including six hotels to put your feet up or recharge for the following day.

TAKE THE OPPORTUNITY TO VISIT TARRAGONA

If you visit PortAventura World, a great plan before or afterwards is to explore the archaeological complex of Tarraco in Tarragona. These ruins, declared a World Heritage Site in 2000, are an extraordinary witness to what was one of the most important cities of the Iberian Peninsula during the Roman Empire's rule.

Wine with designation of origin

VIEW TURISME PENEDÈS WEBSITE

 All year round —  Various locations

Good weather (almost always sunny), rolling vineyard landscapes and a glass of wine to pamper the palate. These are the pillars that make the Ruta del Vi del Penedès (Penedès Wine Route) one of the best things to do near Sitges.

A CERTIFIED ROUTE THAT HAS IT ALL

The Ruta del Vi del Penedès (Penedès Wine Route) belongs to the Club de Rutas del Vino de España (ACEVIN, the Spanish Wine Routes Club), as a certified route since 2001 being one of the first four routes to achieve this distinction in Spain. This is an experiential proposal offered by a group of companies and entities from different municipalities where wine with this designation of origin is the basis for all kinds of offers: winery visits (such as the Bodegues Torres), restaurants, museums, specialist shops and accommodation.

A ROUTE THROUGH THREE COUNTIES

The Ruta del Vi del Penedès (Penedès Wine Route) is spread across different counties that make up this historic Catalan region: Alt Penedès, in the interior with Vilafranca as its capital; Baix Penedès (facing the sea); and Garraf, on the coast with neighbouring Vilanova i la Geltrú as its capital. The route also includes small parts of the counties of Anoia, Baix Llobregat and Alt Camp.

CARRETERA DEL VINO (THE WINE ROAD)

A road with flavour... And a passport

A road lined with vineyards against a green backdrop, with a peaceful pace and following the old route that linked the Penedès vineyards with the Garraf beaches, today offers one of the best wine tourism experiences in Spain. The thirteen wineries that invite you to stop are a thrill for the palate that you simply have to experience. It's a must.

SEVEN MUNICIPALITIES AND A LINEAR ROUTE: THIS IS LA CARRETERA DEL VI (THE WINE ROAD)

Thirty-three kilometres connect Sitges with Sant Martí Sarroca on a linear route. It is known as the Carretera del Vi (The Wine Road), which passes through seven municipalities and allows for stopovers at thirteen wineries within the Penedès Designation of Origin. It is Spain's first 'wine road' and it even has its own passport, valid for two years, which will be stamped at every stop. But wait, it's a passport with a prize. Yes, because once you visit six wineries, you are given a bottle from each one of them. And when you complete the other seven, it's the same. You can't say it's not a rewarding passport... ;)

IN SITGES, THE CIM (MALVASIA INTERPRETATION CENTRE) AND THE MALVASIA DE SITGES (WINE) ARE A MUST.

The stop in Sitges has the added value of being able to taste Malvasia de Sitges (Sitges Malvasia wine), a gastronomic, historical and cultural legacy, whose scope, uniqueness and expansion will be explained to you (tasting included) at the Centre d'Interpretació de la Malvasia \(CIM, Malvasia Interpretation Centre\) of the Celler de l'Hospital (the Hospital's Winery).
